BON MOT'S FAST MILE.

The no-recall system of starting was instituted at Hawthorne yesterday and met with anything but flattering results. The fault, however, cannot be laid to Holtman, but to the number of poor jockeys now riding here. The boys appear to be somewhat rattled with the new order of things, and in many cases yesterday their mounts were hopelessly beaten off soon after the barrier arose simply because a number of them broke flatfooted. When the boys get used to the new style of starting it will undoubtedly show its advantages over the old system. The starting in most of the races was bad, but as already stated it was more the fault of the riders than of starter Holtman.

A Monday gathering fully as large as that of last week was present and despite the poor starting witnessed a good day's sport. The feature event was the Iroquois Handicap, a sweepstakes for three-year-olds at one mile, with $1,500 added. Of the nine scheduled to start five remained in their stalls. Wainamoinen and Hargis opened about equal favorites, but heavy backing of the former made her a decided first choice. After a somewhat tedious delay at the post in which Bon Mot and Hargis acted fractiously, starter Holtman got the quartet off to a perfect start. Wainamoinen at once shot to the front and opened up a gap of three and a half lengths on Hargis when going down the backstretch, while Bon Mot was lapped on the latter and Flora Pomona within striking distance. Just before turning for home Wainamoinen appeared to have the field beaten, but when well straightened for the wire Bon Mot moved up fast with a great burst of speed and passing her with consummate ease won in a canter by seven lengths. Wainamoinen tired rapidly in the last eighth and was well spent when passing under the wire one and a half lengths before Hargis. The latter was taken wide when entering the last quarter and finished toward the outside rail. Flora Pomona ran a poor race and is undoubtedly of no present account. The stake was worth $1,580 to the winner. Bon Mot's performance was excellent, the mile being turned in 1:39 1/4, which is noteworthy from the fact that the Hawthorne track is not at its best just now.

The first race, a mile and seventy yards dash for three-year-olds and upward, went to Alene Abbott, which ran the best race of her career and negotiated a distance which she has never been able to do before. Off in front, she at once took command and, displaying keen speed throughout, never left the result in doubt, winning by two and a half lengths from Reseda, which beat Filibuster four for second place. Emathion, the favorite, had no chance from where he got off. Neither had Thurles nor Rasselas. Satrap showed speed for six furlongs.

Linquist took the second race, a dash of five and a half furlongs for two-year-olds, easily winning by two lengths from Au Revoir, which finished the same distance before Adios. Linquist broke the quickest and had a lead of one and a half lengths soon after the barrier went up, but in the first eighth O'er Land and Sea passed him and led until well into the stretch, where she tired fast. In the last eighth Linquist easily assumed command and was never fully extended thereafter. Au Revoir failed to respond to Coburn's vigorous ride when a furlong out and had to be content with second place. Antagonist, a rank outsider in the betting, finished with a rush and would have been third in another stride or so. Five of this field had no chance when the barrier went up, one of them, Olga Nethersole, being practically left at the post.

The steeplechase over the short course proved an easy thing for Ada S. G., which fenced cleanly throughout and came away easily in the last eighth, winning by three lengths from Meddler, which beat Mazo eight for second place. Meddler's dicky legs stood the run over the infield without bothering him and he finished sound. Captain Conover bled after half the course had been run and was eased up. MacLaren fell heavily over the tenth jump while lying in a good contending position.

Rose Tree had to be much the best in the fifth race, a dash of seven furlongs, to win. While going down the backstretch she appeared to be hopelessly beaten, but after the first half had been run she began to make up ground fast and by the time the head of the stretch had been reached had worked herself into third position. Coming down the last eighth she finished strongly, passing into the lead and winning easily by one length from Alard which beat Constellator the same distance for second place. Alard finished resolutely but was not quite good enough. Constellator came stoutly at the end, nipping the tiring Duellist on the post for third place. Champagne, held at triple figures in the betting, ran an impressive race, having a lead of one and one-half lengths when turning for home, but he fell away badly beaten when the last sixteenth struggle came up. Albert Enright put up a dull race and can do better.

The last race of the day resulted in an easy victory for Frank M., which moved up from third position when turning into the last quarter and, coming strongly in the last eighth, won easily by four lengths from The Caxton, which beat Hylo two and a half for second place. The chances of Birdie D. were ruined by the start.

The track was in excellent condition and should no rain fall today good time may be expected to be made in the various races.

SARATOGA NOTES.

SARATOGA, N. Y., August 25.—T. Burns grows monotonous in the regularity with which he beats the gate. Considerable surprise was manifested when it was announced that the starter had fined him $25 for his misdirected efforts in that respect. James McCormick's stable is rounding to and he was particularly unlucky to lose with Baron Pepper in the last race of the day.

G. B. Morris' colt Cunard, winner of the last event, was superbly ridden by Tommy Burns, and it is now probably a settled fact that L. Jackson's career on the eastern tracks has come to an end. Morris made an effort to secure Doggett's services at Buffalo, but failed owing to the latter's engagement to ride in the Futurity.

Sandy McNaughton in future will make all of Jackson's engagements.

In Lady Albercroft, L. V. Bell has a smart filly and one that should train on into a good three-year-old.

W. C. Whitney will banquet the directors of the Saratoga Association at the club house tonight. It is to be an elaborate affair.

"Snapper" Garrison was assaulted and robbed by negro thugs in the vicinity of Saratoga Lake Sunday night.

Jockey Cochran will leave for Sheepshead Wednesday to ride in several important trials Thursday morning.

Setauket was claimed out of the first race for $1,880, by W. T. McGrath. The same owner sold his colt Mount Hope to a son of W. P. Burch.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

John F. Schorr bought yesterday from his father the horses Joe Frey, Gold Bell, Prince of Endurance, Esherin and Almaric and will hereafter race them in his own name and colors. The latter will be scarlet jacket, blue cap. Flora Pomona, which has been trained by Schorr, will be shipped east today.

Hargis and Bon Mot, which started yesterday in the Iroquois Handicap, will, on account of their fractious acting at the post, be barred from starting until properly schooled to the barrier.

Jockey Coburn was fined $25 in the second race for turning his mount at the post when warned not to do so.

T. H. Stevens, who bred Wyeth, this year's American Derby winner, was at the track yesterday. He shipped his horses from Highland Park Sunday to St. Louis, where they will race the remainder of the season. Mr. Stevens stopped off in Chicago to look at his two-year-old colt Barca, which is being trained by "Buck" Franklin.

Jockey Ranch will leave Thursday for New York to ride C. R. Ellison's Skilful in the Futurity.

Beginning today the following new time schedule will go into effect on the Illinois Central Railroad for the Hawthorne track: 12:15, 12:45, 1:05 and 1:30.

S. Bender returned yesterday from Saratoga and brought Jack Demund, three yearlings and two two-year-olds with him. The horses were recently purchased in the east by Bender & Britton, but the latter has sold out his interest to Bender.

G. C. Bennett signified his intentions yesterday of not shipping to Buffalo. In answer to a question as to whether Coburn would go east and ride in the Futurity, which is to be run next Saturday, he said that the rider would accept any fair offer any eastern owner would make, but he would not send the jockey east for the usual fee of $10 for losing and $25 for winning.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

It is said that Frank McCabe, who is now handling the horses of J. E. Seagram, will train for Perry Belmont next season. Belmont will be without a trainer when Jack Joyner, who will train for Sidney Paget, leaves him.

Inquirer, Peoria, Ill. Four to one would be the fair price, Andy Williams' place, with Wyeth not counting.

Von K., Chicago. All the bets were off if laid before the entries were split.

Bar le Duc, the horse which "Father Bill" Daly claimed from H. M. Ziegler a few days ago, is back in the stable of Ziegler as Daly returned him to his former owner.

STEEPLECHASE PROSPECTS.

"All signs point to an exceedingly good fall season of steeplechasing and hurdling, and there is very little doubt but that next year this popular sport will be placed on a very high plane.

"Without attracting any pointed attention, several prominent steeplechase enthusiasts have been buying a number of eminently suitable horses for next season, and these are not soured, unsound flat course culls, but are high class animals, sound and specially chosen to develop along steeplechase lines," says an editorial in the Spirit of the Times.

"In the west Mr. J. W. Colt's colors have been regrettably absent this season, and his return to steeplechase activity will be warmly welcomed. He is reported as having bought several suitable animals and looking for more. When Mr. Harry W. Smith was in New York a week or two ago he also bought three or four of which he has very high expectations, and it is not beyond the bounds of possibility that Zinziber may again be seen on a metropolitan course. Mr. Chamblet has several horses of high caliber, sound as the proverbial bells, one or two of them which have been specially handled with a view to steeplechase excellence, and these, with the good Widener and the Lawson stables, should make quite a showing at the fall chases of the various clubs.

"Of the horses which were variously drafted into the ranks of the jumpers late last season, some have done well and others have been retired. As a matter of fact several of them should never have been retained even so long as they were. Redpath, for instance, was run time and again, but showed little capacity to carry his action along with him, and then at his best showing, he was taken from the jumps and returned to the flat. Miss Mitchell, on the other hand, which, in her multitudinous races

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

It is announced that the Harlem Jockey Club has determined to give a handicap, to be decided next spring, that will rank in importance with any in the country. This is a step in the right direction and should be supplemented by other action in the same line. The Chicago racing field is highly important; but, returns received by its various racing organizations considered, it does not yield enough money to the turfmen who annually race their horses here. Especially is this true of purses. Four hundred dollar purses were all right a few years back, but they are not sufficient now, and DAILY RACING FORM hopes to see $600 the minimum next year. The local clubs cannot afford to overlook the great advance in the value of overnight races in the east and must respond by a general advance if they wish to keep the good western horses here. Too many western owners take their horses east now. The simple reason is that there is more money to be won there. Chicago responds generously to any offer, of big attractions, and no local club will lose anything by increasing its inducements to owners.

The race which Secretary Nathanson and President Condon of the Harlem Jockey Club are now planning will have at least $10,000 added money, and its gross value will not be less than $15,000 when the entry, declaration and starting fees are figured up. This amount is considered by Mr. Nathanson a conservative estimate of the full value of the stake, and he backs it up by pointing to the records of the last few years, which show that in the west the number of entries for the principal existing handicaps average nearly double those of the eastern fixtures. It is to be a handicap for three-year-olds and upward at a mile and a quarter, weights to be announced the middle of March, declarations to be made some time in April, and the race to be run early in June. He believes such an event will attract quite a number of eastern entries and will combine with the American Derby to bring here some of the best horses in the east in an endeavor to capture the double event.

One feature of the present racing season is the grand showing of the get of Atheling, the English stallion owned by W. P. & B. F. Clyde, now at the head of their Goughacres Stud, Bryn Mawr, Pa. With Dublin to represent him among older horses, Caithness, Laracor, Aden and Gayhilda among the three-year-olds, and such good two-year-olds out as Alan, Morca, Hedge, Athelroy, Shorthose, Shrine, Athlana and Athel, Atheling ranks up among the very great sires of the present year, and had he been brought to this country earlier he might have been a Leamington or a second St. Blaise.

Atheling is now nineteen years old. He is a son of Sterling, out of a sister to King Alfred, by King Tom, his grandam being a daughter of the British Derby winner, Bay Middleton. He raced very little, but won the Scarborough Stakes, and before being brought to this country sired a number of winners on the English turf. His owners, who controlled the Lloyd line of ocean steamers, only utilize Atheling as a private stallion, with the aid of their own mares, to furnish material for their racing stable, so his showing as a successful stallion is all the more remarkable, and had he upon his arrival from England been installed upon some great public breeding farm of Kentucky, it would be hard to guess his standing in the American breeding world today.

Persimmon's winning total as a stallion this season now exceeds $150,000, the three victories of Mead, Perfectionist and Sceptre at Goodwood making his pile that amount, while Persimmon's sire St. Simon, is second with over $115,000, Isinglass third with $73,000 and Carbine, which has stood still the last few weeks, fourth with $69,000 to his credit.

never won a race, in fact—quoting from memory—about twice in the money was the best, has developed into quite a cross country horse.

"The question has often arisen as to the way in which American cross-country performers compare with those of England, and while it is not possible to come to a very close conclusion, there is little doubt that, taking both countries in the gross, the Americans will bear the test better than those across the water. Of course, it must not be forgotten that our fences are more or less abortions, which have been lowered in height until a horse simply strides over or through them, but this is a topic for later consideration. As the case stands today, time is the only line. This year nothing startling has been done in time, and this was due in a great measure to the long continued drought, which made the ground hard as steel on the metropolitan tracks. This was rather hard on the horses, and after they had covered three or four jumps, those with any tenderness plainly showed it, and in several cases deliberately flunked their fences instead of taking them in the free manner natural to the average cross country horse. So bad was this drought that in several cases clouds of dust arose under the feet of the leaders, practically blinding those following, rendering fencing unsafe, so that rather strong criticism was evoked as to why the associations had not watered the grass courses.

"One of the best time performances of this season was by that good horse of Mr. Chamblat, the queerly named Adjidaumo, who covered the two miles in 3:55, coming close to the dead heat time of Diversion-Cosmopolitan, in the spring of 1900, that being 3:53, later by Cock Robin at the Brooklyn fall meeting of that year. Adjidaumo, however, carried 135 pounds and Cock Robin 150 pounds. This represents a speed decimal of 45.70, which is very high for that type of going. Somers, at his best, ran two miles and a half in 4:36, and Plato in 4:39, while at three miles and a half Vanship ran the distance in 7:05, or 42.10 per cent. The Cad in 7:12, or 40.10 per cent., and Zinziber, last year, lowered it to 7:02. Mr. Coventry, the English expert, has said: 'During the past twenty years the averaged time for the English Derby, one mile and a half, is 2:48. During the same period the averaged time of the Grand National, a long four miles and a half, has been 10:13. This is to say, a mile at Epsom has been run on the flat in 1:52, and at Liverpool in twenty-four seconds more, that is, 2:16. There are on the Liverpool course some thirty jumps of formidable size, and the going on the turf is worse than at Epsom, while there are some ploughed fields to be crossed. Moreover, the Derby horses have carried eight stone ten pounds (122 pounds), and the Liverpool horses an average of nearly eleven stones (140 pounds). Reckoning the weight for age it will be seen that a Grand National is run at what is almost the pace of the Derby, maintained, it must always be remembered, for thrice the distance of the Epsom course.' This is naturally a wonderful showing. Taking the above quoted performances of American horses across country, compare them with the corresponding distances on the flat. This gives David Garrick, in the Annual Champion, two miles and a quarter, 123 pounds, 3:56, or a mile in 1:46 sustained and averaged. Looking down the list, it will be found that the American time is faster than the English, on both flat and cross country, but that the average difference between the two courses is about the same as in England. This should be considered an eminently satisfactory showing, and encourages one to think that with a little booming on the part of the associations, a little delicate encouragement of the new blood which is now taking such a live interest, and a clear understanding of the type of horse required—if all this be given consideration, and the jumps raised to the normal standard of height, there appears no reason why the Grand National should not be carried off by an American horse, owner, trainer and jockey, and this is as it should be won."

Lawrence Waterbury's yearling colt, by Phoenix—Genevieve, purchased at the Fairview sale for $800, was killed at Saratoga Friday night. The colt had been in an ugly mood for several days, and late that night he broke down the partition in his stall, releasing a colt that was in the stall with him and two others in a neighboring stall. Several stable boys, however, caught all of the colts but the one belonging to Mr. Waterbury, which dashed across Union avenue and collided with the iron fence, breaking his neck.

Winner—Ch. g, by Bathampton—Sadie (trained by J. Frayling).
Went to post at 2:15. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Sadducee outclassed the field on a speed basis, secured a lucky start and, under a skillful ride, drew away easily on the far turn. Ben Howard held on gamely throughout. Setauket broke slowly and was carried wide on the turns, but finished strongly. The Pride of Surrey tired after racing well for the first half with the winner. Filiform, away badly, made up ground. Guess Work quit in the last quarter. Songster broke down.

Victor nearly fell over the Liverpool, but recovered and, indulging Zyno to the flat, drew to the front cantering and was much the best. Zyno displayed much speed and went well for the first mile, after which he fenced poorly. Galahad closed up at the end and ran a fair race.
Scratched—(34459) Inspector Stevens, 156; 34531 Rising Sun, 142; (34386) Eophone, 140.

Winner—B. f, by Albert—Lady Craft (trained by J. McCormick).
Went to post at 3:15. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Lady Albercraft practically forced the pace throughout and drew clear when straightened for home, stuck to her work gamely and won going away. Wild Thyme was hauled about and choked in an effort to place her and badly handled generally and going strongly at the end. Stamping ground ran as if short and failed to come on at the end. Mary McCafferty broke flatfooted and led to the stretch where she tired and was badly interfered with by the winner, but held on well at the end. Louise Elston was outclassed.
Scratched—34463 Virgin Soil, 101; 34510 Scottish Blue, 94.

Winner—B. c, by His Highness—Nettie (trained by G. Walker).
Went to post at 3:45. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Clonmell, easily best, held away well in hand throughout and is a remarkably improved colt and can beat better ones. The Amazon was favored by the light weight and ran up to her best form. Huntressa, away badly, closed a big gap and was finishing strongly, although swerving repeatedly in the last quarter. Rossignol was not good enough and was carried along too fast in the early part of the race to run kindly. Stevedore went well for six furlongs, but had no chance with his bad jockey and was also outclassed. Moor was evidently out for an airing. Pretorius was unfit and sore when going to the post.
Scratched—(34507) Zoroaster, 113; 34458 Torchlight, 106; 34362 Flying Buttriss, 100; 34555 Setauket, 91.

Winner—Ch. c, by Hastings—Fetish (trained by J. Hyland).
Went to post at 4:15. At post 7 minutes. Start bad. Won handily; second easily. Forward got a running start and made the most of the advantage, skinned the rail throughout, saving ground, and finished out gamely. Virgin Soil went wide on the turn, but finished strongly, having made up considerable ground on the winner in the last half. Osgood and Innsbruck ran in greatly improved form. Both were prominent throughout and going strongly at the end. Counterpoise, a good colt, hopelessly mis-handled and nearly left, raced on the extreme outside into prominence in the first quarter and was probably the best. Bridesmaid II., a coming good one, closed a big gap. Leipsc is promising and showed much speed. Arcade is a grand looker and ran a good race.
Scratched—34506 Fullback, 110; 34506 Belgardo, 110; 34532 Jack o' Lantern, 110; 34506 Showman, 110; 34506 Benduro, 110; 34510 Nine Spot, 107; (34534) Aurisville, 107; 34510 Cloche d'Or, 107.

Winner—Ch. c, by Goldfinch—Lucania (trained by G. B. Morris).
Went to post at 4:50. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Cunard, on which Burns beat the gate, made the running, setting the pace slow with the entire field waiting behind him and stole a long and winning lead on the far turn, winning a lucky race from the best horse. Baron Pepper trailed and was repeatedly interfered with, then moved up very fast on the far turn, but was compelled to go wide and was inadequately handled in a driving finish. Redpath, running on the outside, raced into second place on the backstretch, crowding the entire field except the winner, but tired in the stretch. Carbuncle was coming fast at the end. Zoroaster was outclassed at the weights.

Scratched—34507 Ethics, 109; 34558 Huntressa, 99; 34533 Andy Williams, 98; 34461 Janice, 87.
